BushwickBK.com: hey, sorry for delay, had a bad headache me: very well BushwickBK.com: need a much shorter title BushwickBK.com: and the first part makes it look as if 1) we don't have an events calendar and we don't list a billion things to do every thursday BushwickBK.com: er, 2) where "and" is me: I can re-write it a bit to make it clear that I'm referring to people's projects and various undertakings, not events BushwickBK.com: things about whose existence you may or may not be aware BushwickBK.com: yeah that mgiht be good, not to say you have to be up on everything we cover on the site but we do in fact get tens and hundreds of emails about everyone's bullshit every week me: okay, I'll tweak it real quick to specify that I'm talking about doing profiles of people BushwickBK.com: ok cool me: I'd specified that in the original column last week but didn't really make it clear here me: give me like ten minutes BushwickBK.com: yah BushwickBK.com: ok BushwickBK.com: also not sure if this is the same thing at a glance: http://bushwickbk.com/2009/08/04/zombies-attack-ingraham-street/
me: no, that's a different zombie crawl event BushwickBK.com: I know it's a diff event just wondering if it could be referenced BushwickBK.com: either way just letting you know BushwickBK.com: (zombie stuff is weird) me: okay, just sent revised version BushwickBK.com: cool BushwickBK.com: "I'd been aware from second that Björk ..." BushwickBK.com: from second...what me: oops me: "I'd long been vaguely aware that Bjork" BushwickBK.com: thx
